REVIVAL^{OF} VALANCHE

REVIVAL TOKEN
WHITEPAPER

WHAT IS REVIVAL?

First and foremost, the Revival token is a governance mechanism and a native token for Newton Mint Labs gaming company (NML).

Healthy growth for Revival token's price will be insured by P2E titles and/or metaverses created by Newton Mint Labs, and the use of Revival token in most of those titles.

The first utility for the Revival token is to be used in the Revival of Avalanche game (ROA), so that a portion of the supply will always circulate within the game, naturally increasing demand.

The second purpose for the Revival token is to be used in the NML NFT marketplace to purchase exclusive items for ROA and other games in the future.

The NML team has ensured the token economy is calculated and revised by a professional third party. This will ensure DEX taxes distribution and ROA game distributions are healthy for the token. Hence the natural demand for the token and the slowly decreasing supply will naturally make the price increase over time.

ROA TOKENOMICS FUTURE

FUTURE of Revival token:

Revival token is programmed in a way, so that we as developers can change the distribution of tax fees in the best interest of the token and its holders, up to 7% max. Once new titles are to be released, the Revival token will adjust to become governance and the main token for Newton Mint Labs.

Remember, Investing in Revival is in investing in Newton Mint Labs' native token.

The journey of the Revival token is to be a Defi reflection token before the ROA game launches.

It will become a utility token for ROA once the game launches. In turn, it will flip the Dex fee reflections to game-generated reflections, and also will burn the supply, and increase the token's liquidity more significantly than typical Defi tokens.

The ultimate finish line for the Revival token is to become the main company token once we launch more projects. Whether it's going to be another game, a metaverse, or a launchpad for our specific niche, Revival will serve a purpose for the whole Newton Mint Labs Ecosystem.

The 1% of DEX fees are as follows:

Weekly Draw X

0.7% is distributed to the best-performing guild every week. The guild with the most RESPECT X points in a week will have the bonus of 0.7% Swap fees deposited in their treasury.

Weekly Draw

0.3% is distributed to the best-performing individual player of the week. An individual with the most RESPECT points earns a bonus of 0.3% Swap fees deposited in their treasury.
